

Act 4

Takes place in Salem Jail cell. At the beginning, Sarah thought that the Devil was coming for her/Tituba Herrick moved them to the North Cell, Sarah wanted cider before leaving for Barbados, waiting for Devil to give her wings/feathers. Thought it was hell in Barbados, Tituba thought Devil was sweet in Barbados

Tituba thought a cow was the Devil, dragged out screaming “Devil Take me Home”

Herrick says that Parris ordered him to let Hale in to talk to the prisoners, Danforth thinks he may be drunk In Andover, the people have overthrown the court, Mr. Parris was caught weeping coming outta his house

Cheever thinks Parris is arguing with farmers about the cows whose owners are in jail, contention Parris claims Hale has returned to bring Rebecca to God, trying to get her to confess, along with Martha Corey Parris is troubled because her niece, along with Mercy, are gone, for 3 nights now.

She told Parris that she was staying at Mercy’s, and Mercy told Mr. Lewis she was staying at Parris’

Parris believes she may be on a ship, safe broken into, 31 pounds gone, they fear the town of Salem Parris wants the court to postpone executions, fearing a revolt, Hale maybe can convince people to confess

Had a dagger in his door, almost hit him, but Danforth wouldn’t agree to postpone execution at dawn Hale also wants Danforth to give him another week, Hale spoke with all but Proctor in the dungeon

Hale suggests that a rebellion like in Andover is looming

Herrick says Proctor is like a great bird, wanted Liz to get him to confess, she left the decision up to him

Danforth says that God didn’t give him power like Joshua to stop the sun from rising, so they must die

Hale came to do the Devil’s work, tell Christians to lie, and there’s blood on his head.

Liz says she’s “six months ahead of her time”, Hale tells her that life is God’s most precious gift

Danforth asks Liz if she has any emotions, any intention to save her husband from being hanged

Proctor’s boys are with Rebecca’s Samuel, many confessed, Giles dead, Rebecca has 1 foot in heaven

Tortured Proctor, decides to confess, but doesn’t want it to be written and the whole town to know

Thinks confessing is evil and that’s why he’s doing it, but still doesn’t want it to be written

He saw the Devil, Did his work on Earth, Rebecca came to hear the confession, also asked to confess

Rebecca wouldn’t give in, Proctor says he didn’t see Rebecca with the Devil, or her sis, Mary Easty

He saw no one with the Devil, bunch of people have already said they saw Rebecca with Devil

Danforth says that Rebecca is convicted of killing kids, and Proctor of sending spirit to Mary

Parris asks to stop questioning and let him sign, but he didn’t want to. God’s name enough

God does not need his name nailed on the church, he blacken his kids when they hang for silence

He doesn’t want to sign because he can have only 1 name, and he’s signing himself to lies

He’s given his soul to the court, leave the name!, then Proctor crushes the paper in fury

He kisses Liz in the mist of the trouble, and him, Liz, and Rebecca “fear nothing”

Rebecca and Proctor are ordered to be hanged, Rebecca almost collapses, had no breakfast

Parris tells Liz to run after Proctor, and Hale tells her to plead with him, but she wouldn’t do it, for he has his goodness now in death, and God forbids that she takes it
